

Activity 6:

Name _____

1. Fill in the missing parts of this wacky story any way you wish. (You must add several words to each sentence—see the example.)

There were triangles all over the place.

Some of them were dangling from ropes in the sky.

Some of them _____ salad.

Some of them _____ rocks.

Some of them _____ balloons.

And do you know what? They were having just a wonderful time!

2. Read this sentence: Someday, all cats will have to wear collars. Rewrite it below—with all of the vowels missing.

_____

Now, rewrite the original sentence again, this time with one letter missing from each word. Try to take out the least important letters.

_____

3. Cross out some of the letters from the word "missing" to form sentences that make sense.

For example:

~~missing~~ your test finished?

missing it time to go?

missing me a song.

missing the closet, you'll find a coat.

4. Write a sentence about this picture. Use the word "missing" two times.
